NEGRO STAGES A DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP

Fourteen Year Old Son of Jerre Spence, Fairfield Road, Robbed.

SEIZED REINS OF HORSES

Robber Bound Victim's Arms Behind Back with Belt, then Started Horses.

A broad daylight hold-up was staged on the Fairfield Road a short distance from the Marsh Creek bridge, Thursday evening about 7:10 o'clock when a negro jumped on the wagon of Merle Spence, fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Spence, Fairfield Road, and robbed him of a ring, forty cents, and a match case. No trace of the highwayman has been found.

On Thursday afternoon shortly before three o'clock Merle Spence arrived in Gettysburg to transact some business at a local bank and also to sell a load of wood which he had hauled in from the Spence farm. After attending to his duties in town and securing a load of ice he started for home.

The young boy had passed over the Marsh Creek bridge at Bream's farm and was not paying especial attention to the road, as he was looking at some photographs he had purchased in town, when he was suddenly startled by seeing a negro standing at the head of his horse which had come to a halt.

Pointing a gun at young Spence's head and demanding him to "throw up your hands," the negro jumped on the wagon, took off the boy's belt, tied his hands behind his back, and then searched all of Spence's pockets. In addition to the ring, forty cents, and a match box the negro found a check but threw it on the floor of the wagon as he knew he would be unable to cash it.

"Now go home," commanded the highwayman to young Spence after he had completed his search and in obedience to his order, the horses commenced to run down the road at full speed. Merle attempted to turn in at the first farm house and tell of his hold-up but the horse would listen to no verbal command and, as the boy could not use the reins, there was no stop made until the Spence farm was reached twenty minutes later.

As soon as he heard his son's story Jerre Spence immediately phoned to Detective Charles Wilson who secured State Policeman Norman Tipton to aid him in searching for the negro who is described as large and stout, and wearing dark trousers, a blue shirt and a dark slouch hat.

Detective Wilson and State Policeman Tipton arrived on the scene of the hold-up in less than an hour after it had occurred and searched for several hours in the darkness but were unable to find any trace of the negro.

SIGNAL CORPS UNVEILS TABLET

Colonel Haskell Recalls Service of the Corps at Gettysburg.

PAYS HONOR TO COMRADES

Twenty Seven Veterans Present at Dedictory Ceremony. Lincoln's Speech Recited.

"We are met here on Little Round Top on a spot made memorable for all time because of the conspicuous service of our Signal Corps at a crucial hour on the afternoon of July 2, 1863," said Colonel Edward H. Haskell, Historian of the Veteran Signal Corps Association, during his dedicatory address at the impressive unveiling of the Signal Corps Memorial Tablet held on Little Round Top at 11:00 o'clock this morning. "At that time," continued Colonel Haskell, "Captain Hall and his flagmen Goodnow and Chamberlain by heroic efforts under a most galling fire were not only able to hold the position which enabled General Warren to keep up constant communication with our Commander-in-Chief but also to report the various movements of the enemy and enable our Commanders to thwart Confederate movements at several important crises in that afternoon's noted program. It was especially due to Captain Hall and his flagmen who discovered that the enemy was moving toward General Sickles' left that brought General Warren to Little Round Top where he soon was able to realize the importance of the position.

"So it comes," said Colonel Haskell at the conclusion of his address, "that we are here to-day to pay our tribute of love and high regard to our comrades who laid upon the altar of their country their services and to place this tribute engraved on an enduring tablet for future generations to read."

The tablet was then unveiled by Comrade Charles DeWitt Marcy, secretary and treasurer of the Veteran Signal Corps Association, one of the most beloved and highly esteemed comrades in the organization.

Twenty seven veterans of the Signal Corps attended the impressive ceremony and stood in silent groups as Colonel Haskell recalled their famous deeds of fifty six years ago and dedicated the memorial to the memory of their comrades who fell during the days of battle or have since passed away.

SONS OF AMERICA BOOST WELCOME

Lodge Favors Plans to Give Fitting Celebration to Adams' Soldiers.

SUGGEST A MEMORIAL

They Favor Labor Day for the Ceremony. More Men will be Discharged. Committee is Appointed.

Patriotic Order Sons of America has caught the spirit of giving a royal welcome to the Adams county boys who participated in the war against the Central Powers and in addition to appointing a committee to co-operate with other lodges in arranging for a huge demonstration, suggests the idea that a permanent memorial be erected to the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines of Adams county. P. O. S. of A. is of the opinion that the memorial should be in the form of a bronze tablet containing the names of every Adams county service man which would be erected in front of the court house or else four separate tablets that would be placed on the sides of the Center Square ornament.

At a meeting held in their lodge room on Thursday night the Patriotic Order Sons of America appointed George Aughinbaugh, C. K. Hartzell, W. G. Myers, Robert Geiselman, and Harvey Noel as a committee to co-operate in every possible manner with the Order of Independent Americans and all other lodges that will name committees to arrange for a demonstration for the returned service men.

After "Welcome Home Day" has been held, P. O. S. of A. believes the time will arrive when a permanent memorial should be erected after consideration by the same committees which had the celebration in charge.

Fourth of July has been generally talked of as the time to hold the welcome for the returned soldiers but some members of P. O. S. of A. think that Labor Day would be a more suitable time as there are some Adams county boys still with the army of occupation in Germany who would not be home by July 4th and also Labor Day would allow more time for regulars to be discharged from both Army and Navy.

The suggestion of the Patriotic Order Sons of America to erect a permanent memorial for the boys of this county who fought in all three branches of the service is considered an excellent one by many and is bound to meet with the approval of persons throughout the entire county. With practically every city and town in the country either erecting or considering the erection of a memorial to their men it seems only befitting a place of Gettysburg's historical significance to commence plans for both a royal welcome and suitable memorial for the service men of the county.

SERGEANT SMILEY IS AGAIN CHIEF

Will Resume Duties on Police Force Monday. Weikert and Fox Retained.

HAD TWO YEARS' SERVICE

Enlisted in Fourth Infantry. November 11th was Birthday, Pay Day and Armistice Day for him.

After serving nineteen months in France with Field Bakery Number 16, Sergeant Horace E. Smiley will on Monday resume his position as Chief of Police of Gettysburg replacing Andrew Weikert who will go on the night force and work in conjunction with C. A. Fox.

Horace E. Smiley accepted a position on the night police force of Gettysburg in May 1915, and was given the position of Chief in December of that year when Wallace Emmons left Gettysburg.

Immediately after war was declared against Germany Chief Smiley handed in his resignation as Chief of Police which was not accepted by the Town Council and instead he was given indefinite leave of absence and his position held open for him the entire time he was in France.

On June 4, 1917, Smiley enlisted in the Fourth United States Infantry stationed at Gettysburg and trained here for two months until he was sent to Camp Bartlett at Westfield, Massachusetts, on August 12th. Shortly before leaving Gettysburg he was transferred to Field Bakery 16 with which outfit he remained until he was discharged from the service this month.

Private Smiley became a corporal on September 14, the same day he sailed from Montreal on a British transport for France. Two days later he was promoted to Sergeant.

Chief Smiley landed at Le Havre, France, on October 5 and his company was not given even an hour's rest but started immediately for the Toul sector with the 102nd Infantry. Field Bakery 16 halted a short distance behind the lines and worked twelve hours a day for six days and eighteen hours the seventh and for five months until the Germans started their "big push" in March 1918. Sergeant Smiley's outfit was then transferred to Dijon where he remained eleven months in the same camp working continually at baking bread to send to the men on the front.

November 11, 1918, was a big day in Sergeant Smiley's life for it was his birthday, pay day, and Armistice Day. He said, "We were working along just the same on that day as any other and the only difference was that I remembered it was my birthday and that we got paid off in the morning. About eleven o'clock I went to draw my pay when the anti-aircraft guns all commenced to shoot and we knew that the war was over and the fighting would stop. Then there was some time."

LIEUTENANT BREAM HOME

Fought in the Important Battles of the War, Marne and Argonne.

Lieutenant Clyde Bream, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bream, of Carlisle street, reached Gettysburg this morning after serving one year with the United States Army in France and Germany.

Lieutenant Bream enlisted in the 58th Infantry while it was training at Gettysburg and fought with the Fourth Division in the battle of the Marne. Afterward he was sent to a training school and later commissioned. He was assigned to the 128th Infantry, 32nd Division, and was with that organization in the fighting along the Meuse and in the Argonne Forest. He went into Germany with the Third Army of Occupation which was stationed at Coblenz.

SCHOOL YEAR AT SEMINARY ENDS

Diplomas Awarded to Members of Senior Class in Christ Lutheran Church.

DR. COOVER GAVE ADDRESS

Board of Directors Decide to Increase Endowment Fund $100,000. Dr. H. C. Alleman President of Alumni.

Commencement exercises in the College Lutheran church Thursday evening marked the end of the school year for the Theological Seminary students and was the beginning of ministerial careers for thirteen young men who were awarded diplomas.

Four members of the graduating class, W. Stuart Hinman, of Lynn, Massachusetts; W. Raymond Sammel, of Bedford; Chester S. Simonton and Paul A. Weidley, of Altoona, were granted the degree of bachelor of divinity. The remainder of the class were given the regular seminary diplomas. Two of the class will leave in a short time for missionary work in foreign fields. Jens P. Larsen will go to Africa and Harry Goedeke to India.

Dr. M. Coover, of the Seminary faculty, delivered the baccalaureate address and chose for his subject "The Kingdom of God and the Christian Citizen." His theme dealt chiefly with the problem of reconstructing the world. He said the soldier, scientist and economist may make the world safe for democracy, but the church must re-constitute society. He attributed the recent world catastrophe to moral ruin.

Mark Eckert played the organ processionally. Other musical numbers were a vocal solo by Mrs. O. G. Beckstrand and an anthem by the church choir.

Directors Meet

In a session of the Board of Directors of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, which lasted throughout the day, it was decided to increase the present endowment fund $100,000. A committee of seven ministers was appointed to formulate plans for raising the subscriptions. Routine business occupied the board throughout most of the day. Officers elected at the meeting last year were re-elected. Dr. M. J. Kline, of Altoona, is president; Rev. John Wagner, of Hazleton, vice president; Harry C. Picking, of Gettysburg, secretary; Citizens Trust Company, of Gettysburg, treasurer.

That the Seminary is in a prosperous condition was revealed in the report of Dr. John A. Singmaster, president of the institution. In spite of the increased cost of running expenses for the past several years there are no unpaid debts. The board voted to grant the diplomas to the members of the graduating class.

At the meeting of the Alumni Association, Dr. H. C. Alleman, was elected president to succeed Dr. J. A. Clutz. Rev. W. H. B. Carney, of Dubois, president of the Allegheny Synod of the Lutheran church, was chosen to make the Alumni address next year.

New York May 16—Stocks showed very slight change at the opening of today's market, but strong tendencies soon developed on renewal of demands for shipping, oils, metals and other recent leaders, buying of shipping, oils, metals and equipment continuing at a lively pace, but utilities reacted on a two point setback. American International gained four points before profit taking made any impression. Other stocks especially minor copper and kindred issues moved steadily higher.

THESE NUMBERS WIN HUN HELMETS

Coupons Drawn at High Auditorium Thursday. Only One to a Person.

TIME LIMIT IS MAY 24

High School Receives One of Trophies in Appreciation of Work Done in Three Loan Campaigns.

From a box containing four thousand Victory Loan application stubs, twenty three numbers were picked Thursday in the auditorium at the High School. To each person holding a corresponding coupon will be given one of the German helmets which have been on display in Gettysburg for the past few weeks.

The numbers which were drawn by Samuel Gilliland, of Carlisle street, are as follows: 6978, 9893, 9892, 8816, 7936, 6960, 3373, 8540, 8539, 4191, 4188, 4186, 1719, 4196, 4845, 651, 6979, 8555, 8287, 3878, 8259, 2120, 8443.

In view of the fact that several of the numbers drawn are close together, numerically speaking, and the fact that one bond buyer may hold two or three of the winning numbers, the Executive Committee has ruled that only one helmet will be given to a person. Anyone holding a stub with a number above named may procure a Hun helmet by showing the coupon to R. D. Strevig, at Weaver's Store, on Center Square.

All stubs must be presented before Saturday, May 24. After that time the slips drawn Thursday will not be considered and if any of the German trophies remain unclaimed at that time, another drawing will take place on the following Monday morning.

Because of the excellent work done by the students of the High School during all of the Liberty Loan campaigns, it was decided by the chairman to present that institution with the largest and most pretentious looking helmet of the twenty four received by the committee. This was done Thursday by William Sunday, Assistant Chairman of the District. In making the presentation Mr. Sunday recalled the splendid service rendered by the High School pupils in the third and fourth drives and how in the closing days of the last campaign many hundreds of dollars worth of bonds were sold through the efforts of the students. It was the unanimous opinion of the committee that no other group of workers was more deserving of the mark of appreciation than the High School.

HUNS THREATEN AS THEY WHINE

Ebert Talks Bravely, While Scheidemann Begs for Mercy.

AUSTRIA GETS PROGRAM

Chancellor Says Treaty Cannot be Signed in Present Form. Notes Flying to and Fro.

Berlin, May 16—Friedrich Ebert, the German president, in a statement made in the newspaper Vorwarts, has reiterated his opposition to the peace terms submitted by the Entente, declaring them unconscionable with conscience and reason and insisting that they must be drastically and fundamentally corrected. Above all, practical negotiations were necessary, he declared, and these would quickly result in the attainment of a worthy peace, if a return were made to the fourteen points.

"As long as one remnant of hope remains that reason will triumph," continued President Ebert, "we will not speak our last word, but should it prove that this mailed fist peace is to be imposed upon us we shall have to take our decisions."

"To-day I still hope that the attempt will not be made to extort from the German nation an assent which would be nothing but a lie born of desperation."

"We must keep faith with our countrymen, who are threatened with separation by foreign violence, and be ready to carry out the hardest resolve."

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the head of the German peace delegation in communicating to the other members of the delegation the text of the three notes he sent to Premier Clemenceau, pointed out that the peace treaty in its present form could not be accepted and could not be signed because it was impossible to fulfill its terms.

Dispatches from Versailles reporting the Council's action added that he told the German delegation that it would sign nothing it was not intended to fulfill. The delegation, he continued, would endeavor to improve the treaty and make its signing possible.

London, May 16—Phillip Scheidemann, the German premier, has sent through the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Herald, the labor newspaper, an appeal to the British people to realize "the appalling position Germany is placed in by the peace conditions."

Herr Scheidemann in his appeal makes various points similar to those in speeches of his that have already been reported, and in addition says: "We cannot believe that fellow-human beings, however much under the influence of a wicked war, can really intend to reduce a kindred civilized people to slavery, for that is what these conditions mean."

"We Germans call upon you English not to force us to sign away our birthright and the peace of Europe in our hour of weakness."

Paris, May 16—The conviction is growing in Allied circles that most of the German protests against the peace treaty so far received were written before the reading of the treaty and are designed as propaganda. This conviction is strengthened by the fact that the text of the treaty is not quoted and that the protests have been published in Berlin before they were received in Paris.

The conference, however, is referring all protests to committees, which will consider them in their merits.

Paris, May 16—The Council of Four has declined to consider the note from Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, chief of the German peace mission, relative to international labor legislation. In a note sent to the German delegation Wednesday, M. Clemenceau, president of the Peace Conference, says that the Allied and associated governments are "of the opinion that their decisions give satisfaction to the anxiety which the German delegate professes for social justice, and insure the realization of reforms which the working classes have more than ever a right to expect after the cruel trial to which the world has been subjected during the last five years."

ENGLAND PAYS HOMAGE TO NURSE

Body of Edith Cavell, Murdered by Germans, Taken to Westminster Abbey.

London, May 16—England paid tribute to Edith Cavell, the English nurse executed by the Germans at Brussels, October 12, 1915, here, Thursday, when her body, en route from Brussels to her native city of Norwich, was taken to Westminster Abbey for an impressive memorial service.

It was a public funeral, in which it seemed every resident of the great metropolis endeavored to participate. The streets through which the cortege moved were congested with crowds, and every inch of standing room in the neighborhood of the abbey was occupied by a densely massed multitude, which was eager to do reverent homage to "that brave woman," as the Bishop of London described her, "who deserves a great deal from the British Empire."

The congregation at the abbey included high officials of the Government, representatives of foreign countries and men prominent in many walks of life. King George was represented by the Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mary.

Dean of Westminster Officials

The service was conducted by the Dean of Westminster. No address was delivered. The opening sentences of the burial service were sung by the choir, which then sang the Twenty-third Psalm and a short lesson from the Revelations of St. John. Then came Sullivan's anthem, "Yea, Though I Walk Through the Valley of the Shadow of Death," and "I Heard a Voice From Heaven."

The Litany, the Lord's Prayer and two collects were then repeated, followed by the hymn, "Abide With Me." The benediction was then pronounced, and the last post and reveille were sounded.

The service, which began at noon, lasted half an hour. The procession left the abbey to the strains of Chopin's "Funeral March," and proceeded to the station, where the coffin of plain oak was placed on a train for Norwich.

On the coffin was the simple inscription:

"Edith Cavell.
"Born Dec. 4, 1865,
"Died Oct. 12, 1915."

TWO HURT IN COLLISION

Man and Woman Injured Near Glenburnie.

Baltimore, May 16—Suffering from slight injuries received in an automobile accident near Glenburnie early yesterday morning, Mrs. Marie Conroy, 645 Wyeth street and Harry Fenker, 415 North Poppleton street, were taken to the University Hospital.

The accident occurred at Marley Bridge, near Glenburnie, when Fenker, who was driving the motorcycle, on which Mrs. Conroy was also riding, attempted to pass to the left of an automobile in front to keep from running over it. As he did so his machine was in collision with the car of W. J. Loven, who lives in West Annapolis.

The injured persons were picked up by a storekeeper nearby and carried to the hospital in his machine. Mrs. Conroy sustained a lacerated knee, while Fenker is suffering from a fracture of the left leg.

Former Judge Allison O. Smith, of Clearfield, is in West Virginia completing his work in connection with his position as umpire between the operators and miners in a long-drawn-out dispute.

BIG DIRIGIBLE DROPS IN SEA

Gale Kills Plans for Cross-Ocean Flight. Steamship Standing by.

OFFICER LEAPS FOR LIFE

Had Made Long Journey to St. Johns Successfully. Fought Wind for Six Hours.

St. Johns, N. F., May 15—The U. S. Navy dirigible C-5, which escaped from its moorings here Thursday afternoon, dropped into the sea about 85 miles off shore, according to a radio message received Thursday night by the cruiser Chicago from an unidentified British steamship.

The steamship said it was standing by the dirigible. The destroyer Edwards, which went out in pursuit of the blimp after it was blown to sea was notified by wireless of its position and started at once to salvage the airship.

St. Johns, N. F., May 16—Plans of the United States Navy for a transatlantic flight by a dirigible received a serious jolt Thursday when the giant "blimp" C-5 burst from her moorings in a gale and was swept out to sea soon after she had arrived from Montauk Point, after being in the air continuously for 25 hours and 45 minutes.

The destroyer Edwards immediately set out in pursuit with orders to bring the big gas bag down with anti-aircraft artillery, if necessary. Even if the Edwards is able to rescue the "blimp" before some serious misfortune befalls her, it probably will require some time to repair the damage which will result from her fall into the ocean.

Lieut. Charles G. Little, of Newburyport, Mass., who was given charge of the C-5 after her crew had been bundled off to bed aboard the cruiser Chicago, was almost carried away by the fugitive gas bag while making a nervy attempt to deflate it.

Leaps to Safety

Seated in the blimp's nacelle when she broke away, he seized the rip cord and gave a tug which should have opened up the big envelope and permitted the gas to escape. The cord broke, however, and Lieutenant Little, realizing he would be unable to bring the ship down, leaped out from a height of 25 feet. His only injury was a sprained ankle.

The escape of the C-5 followed a long struggle by sailors from the cruiser Chicago to prevent its injury when gusty west winds swept across its mooring place in Quividi basin and began to swing it about. Several of the sailors, clinging to guy ropes, were thrown down by the dirigible's final tug, but none were injured.

Fought Gale Six Hours

A landing crew of 100 men under the direction of Lieutenant Little had fought with the gale for control of the C-5 for six hours before it broke away.

Wholly unsheltered on the wind-swept field, the dirigible pitched and bucked, stripping her bottom of canvas and tearing the bow plates away. Fenders were placed to blunt the shock and the men of the landing crew rode wildly as they clung to the car through its oscillations under succeeding gusts of wind, endeavoring to save it.

COLLAR BONE INFECTED

Young Colored Boy in Harrisburg Hospital.

Donald Thomas, colored, sixteen year old son of Richard Thomas, is in the Harrisburg Hospital waiting to undergo an operation for a decayed collar bone.

According to Richard Thomas his son broke his collar bone about one month ago but it was only discovered this week that the bone was broken instead of bruised. The accident occurred when young Thomas bumped into a pillar in a dark cellar.

A short time before breaking his collar bone Thomas had the arch of his right foot crushed when it was caught under an automobile which slipped off a jack.

The young colored boy is a student at the high school.

THE LIEBKNECHT MURDER

Three of Those Involved Convicted and Sentenced.

Berlin, May 16—Three of the persons charged with the murder of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg during Spartacan disorders last winter were convicted by the court-martial. The Hussar named Runge was sentenced to two years in prison and four years' deprivation of civil rights. Lieut. Kurt Vogel was sentenced to two years in prison and four months under arrest, with dismissal from the service. Lieutenant Rittmann was sentenced to six weeks under arrest.

The other persons accused were acquitted.

IT'S ANTI-NOISE TELEPHONE SET

This queer looking telephone knows its master's voice. Anyhow, it carries no sound but the voice that speaks into it. Result: An aviator in a whirling plane can talk by wireless with the ground and none of the noise of his motor is heard. It's called the magnavox and anti-noise transmitter and it's the invention of three Frisco men, E. S. Prindham, P. L. Jensen and O. B. Moorehead. With it an airman talked to a crowd in front of the treasury building from a height of 2000 feet.

AUSTRIANS GET TERMS WEDNESDAY

Will Require Dismantling of Armament Plants. Hungarians Absent.

Paris, May 16—The Austrian peace terms probably will be presented to the Austrian delegation Wednesday. The terms, it is understood, require the dismantling of the famous Skoda works, among other armament plants.

The Council of Four Thursday morning discussed with its military advisers the military terms of the treaty. It is understood that these are similar to those in the German treaty, including the prohibition of conscription.

The failure of the Hungarian Government to respond to the invitation to send delegates to France to receive peace terms and the general uncertainty of Hungarian conditions probably will delay the Austrian peace negotiations. The problem relating to Austria and Hungary overlap so greatly that the Allies feel that many phases of them must be considered jointly.

Professor Philip C. Brown, an attaché of the American Embassy in Vienna, who has been in Budapest recently, arrived Thursday from Hungary, bringing unsatisfactory reports of the general situation.

Austrian Delegates Unrestricted

St. Germain en Laye, May 16—The Austrian delegates to the peace conference, who arrived here Wednesday evening, strolled freely through the streets and parks Thursday, apparently enjoying complete freedom of movement. There are no barriers here like those which surround the German delegates at Versailles.

The Austrians have made no request thus far to communicate with the German delegation.

Washington Gets no Treaty News

Washington, D. C., May 16—No information regarding the Austrian peace treaty has reached the State Department, and officials here had no idea as to its length, or whether a summary would be cabled to the United States for publication when it is presented to the Austrian delegates, as was done in the case of the German treaty.

JAPAN'S REFORM IN CHINA

Plans to Give Korea a Measure of Self-Government.

Tokio, May 16—The Privy Council met yesterday under the presidency of the Emperor—and decided upon a partial revision of the organic system of the Korean government.

Washington, May 16—Privy Council plans for the reorganization of the Korean government are understood to contemplate, if not a complete substitution of civil for military control, at least a great enlargement of the participation of civilians in the administration. This policy already has been inaugurated in the Japanese holdings on the Liaotung Peninsula of Manchuria.

It was said in Japanese quarters that the purpose of the Japanese government to afford the Koreans a large measure of self-government was suspended in execution only by reason of the recent independent movement and that with the restoration of quiet the present military administration in Korea would give way to civil control.

HIGH DEFEATED BY ONE RUN

Rain in Fifth Inning Breaks up Pitchers' Battle. Lost Three Close Games.

A very close decision at home given to Mt. St. Mary's when Barrett slid for the plate in a driving downpour of rain resulted in the only run of the game and defeat for High School as the contest was called at the end of the fifth. Score 1-0.

It was another hard game for High School to lose but the one run "Jinx" continues to follow in their footsteps. Three of the four games which High School lost this year, namely Mt. St. Mary's, Hanover and Palmyra, have been won by their opponents by the margin of one run while the fourth loss was to Mt. St. Mary's here by the score of 4-2.

Neither team had showed great advantage during the five innings as far as offensive strength was concerned for Hunter and Alfred had only allowed four hits between them.

Outfielder Shmukler, of Gettysburg, provided the fielding feature of the game in the third inning when he made a diving catch of Cush's fly ball.

THIEVES ROB BUILDING

Steal Jewelry from Merchants at Baltimore.

Baltimore, May 16—Occupants of the building at 114 West Baltimore street reported yesterday morning to the police that thieves entered the rooms of eight merchants in the building Wednesday night or early yesterday morning and stole jewelry and clothing valued at several hundred dollars.

Frederick Strodtman, one of the tenants, reported that $200 worth of jewelry was secured from his place and that entrance was gained by jimmying the transom. Max M. Sugar reported a jewelry loss of $50. I. Greenthal missed four suits of clothing from his shop. Several dozen new straw hats were taken from the Sarnoff-Irving Hat Company's warehouse on the second floor. The places of John Goth and Samuel W. Trott, on the second floor, and of August Seifert and Edward Horn, on the third were also entered, but nothing of value was taken.

Detectives Roche and Vahle have been assigned to the case.

TROLLEY STRIKE

Caused People of Pittsburgh to Walk in Rain.

Pittsburgh, May 16—A drenching downpour of rain added to the discomfort of persons who yesterday were forced to walk as the result of a strike of 3,000 motormen and conductors of the Pittsburgh Railway Co. Up to noon there was no indication that a settlement of the strike was in sight, both the receivers of the company and the union saying they would abide by their respective stands.

The strike followed the Federal Court ruling that the receivers could not be bound by any ruling of the War Labor Board if the men's demand of twelve cents an hour increased wages was submitted to that body.

Tired, Nervous Women What You Need is Vinol

The reason we recommend Vinol so strongly for such conditions is because it is a non-secret remedy which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a run-down system and replace weakness with strength.

HERE IS PROOF

Glasgow, Jct., Ky. "I was weak, nervous, all run down, no appetite and had taken different medicines without benefit. A friend advised me to try Vinol. It gave me a wonderful appetite, I sleep well, have gained in weight and am now strong and well."—Mrs. E. Streyl.

WILSON ENDORSES SALVATION ARMY.

President Wilson, burdened as he is, found time to cable his endorsement of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign, which will be conducted during the week of May 19-26. The cablegram:

Commander Miss E. Booth, Personal, Salvation Army, 120 West Fourteenth street, New York:

I am very much interested to know that the Salvation Army is about to enter into a campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that the Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend it as to congratulate it. Cordially and sincerely yours,
WOODROW WILSON.

WOULD BUY THE YORK TURNPIKE

York County Finds Difficulties in Making Highway Part of Sproul System.

At the meeting of the Committee on the York-Adams-Cumberland North and South Highway held Wednesday evening it developed that the legal and legislative tangles of this proposition are so complex that it is probable that unless this movement succeeds at this time it is unlikely that it can be arranged in the future. All of these circumstances are now adjusted save one. This is the fact that the 'pike' must be acquired without cost to the county or state. If this can be done it is assured that the road at this session of Legislature will likely be placed on the Sproul System.

The Committee has succeeded in getting a definite price of $10,000 for the judgments which control the 'pike', the amount of which are about $125,000. All of which means that if those who are interested and benefited will subscribe the amount of $10,000 payable when the 'pike' shall have been made part of the Sproul System, this great road will become a fact, and the communities through which it passes will enjoy its benefits and the State Highway Department will assume the entire cost and control of its maintenance.

Captain I. J. Meenan and Captain M. W. Fredenburg have been elected honorary life members of Ridgway, Lodge of Elks in recognition of their services in the war. Both are members of Co. N, 112th Regiment, and were in the worst of the fighting in France.

About Man who Killed Two at City. Reward Offered.

The net is being drawn tighter for the apprehension of the man who so foully brought about the death of Gabriel Peracchia and James Joseph Critchlow. A nation-wide search is on. Every clue that will lead to the possible apprehension of the murdered will be followed and nothing will be left undone to bring the guilty one to justice.

Thursday evening Chief Buttorff had many circulars in the mail giving a description of the murderer and a brief story of the crime, together with the information of a reward being offered by the county commissioners. These were addressed to police officials all over the country and it is hoped will bring results.

If a physician, a specialist in stomach diseases, came to you and said: "I will fix up that miserable worn out stomach for you or money back."
"I will make it as good as new so you will not suffer from any distress and can eat what you want without fear or suffering, or money back would you turn down his offer?"
And when you are offered Mi-o-na stomach tablets, made from a prescription better than many of the stomach specialists know how to write, are you going to be narrow minded and continue to suffer from indigestion, or are you going to be fair to yourself and try Mi-o-na on the money back agreement.
Mi-o-na stomach tablets are offered to you on this basis, that if they do not put your stomach into such good shape that there is no dizziness, sour stomach, biliousness, sick headache, and stomach distress, your money will be returned. For sale by People's Drug Store and all leading druggists.

Pillows her head as she slumbers there.
Unloved, rebuffed—this woman who
Hungering, wandered the long day through—

Who in the throng will heed her plight—
This wasted prey of the chill wind's bite?
Alone, despised—no kin to vouch
She, cringing there on her gutter couch—

Poor outcast near her journey end!
Has none a helping hand to lend?
Who of all with eyes to see
Her bitter plight, recall that she

THREE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

At Chambersburg. Father Dies in Flames. Mother Died Few Weeks ago.

Denny Geyer and his three motherless children were burned to death early Thursday when flames did several hundred dollars damage to a double frame dwelling in Chambersburg.

Bodies of the children, Brady, 8; Elmer, 10, and Charles, 12, were found huddled under a window to which they had crawled in an effort to escape. The father's body, burned to an unrecognizable crisp, was found at the head of the stairway.

Excitement was so great at the Geyer home that the neighbors apparently were unable to gather their wits sufficiently to make an effort to rescue the children who lost their mother six weeks ago. Mrs. Adam Seiple, who lived in part of the house, collapsed as she ran to safety. Her head struck the pavement and she was rendered unconscious. This added to the excitement. Simon Lake, who also lived in the house, made his escape.

Geyer's wife died several weeks ago leaving him with five children. The two youngest were taken by friends and consequently they are the only ones of the large family to remain alive.

Geyer was a laborer, and according to stories of the neighbors did not provide a very good home for his family. His efforts to get a housekeeper failed and the boys as usual last night sat on the curb until they

LIQUOR MEN IN AIR

Important Boozie Legislation Scheduled for Monday Night.

Liquor men, who are regarded as playing their last big hand in politics in Pennsylvania now, are said to be up in the air about what to do on the legislation scheduled for the House Monday night. Governor Sprout stands firmly for prohibition enforcement that will enforce the law and that Congress should say what shall constitute a drink with a kick. The liquor people have been beaten at every stage of the game this session and have been having a hard time to realize that their old time swing in the legislative halls has gone.

The Vickerman and Fox enforcement bills will go through and the fight will be on the alcohol percentage bill, as some one called it. The whole three are up for a final action Monday night.

OUT OF SIGHT-- BUT DANGEROUS

If you could watch your carburetor work, you would soon realize that the continuous, ever-changing adjustment which it goes through automatically, is wearing it out faster than you ever imagined.

If carburetors would break down and quit, like storage batteries or tires, the average automobilist would save money. But carburetors do not work that way. They merely wear out gradually, lowering the efficiency of your car, reducing its power, cutting its pep and pick-up in half, and sometimes doubling its gasoline consumption. This goes on steadily and gradually without your knowledge until after a year or two, you say "the old car is worn out."

The car is not worn out just because it is losing its pep and power. It is merely not getting the proper kind of food. Its digestive apparatus—the carburetor—is no longer able to feed the motor properly. The result is that the motor gets along in the best way it can with the poor fuel, and gives you only half the proper service.

Isn't it time to take this matter seriously and put a new RAYFIELD carburetor on your car? It means a slight expense—yes—but the expense is well worth the added ability and economy that the carburetor gives.

Drop in tomorrow and let us show you what a new RAYFIELD will do. It will give your car increased ability, increased power, quicker acceleration and will probably cut your gasoline bill by 30 per cent.

Take this matter seriously now, and come in tomorrow and talk it over with us.

We will give you our honest opinion as to what a RAYFIELD will do for you.

MILLIONS SEE
TROOPS MARCH

Peerless, Carrying Unit of 28th, Delayed at Sea. Men Miss Parade.

BANQUET FOR OFFICERS

Governor Sproul Present. Major General Muir, Commander, Receives Medal for Services from State.

Philadelphia, May 16—Philadelphia surrendered yesterday to the Twenty Eighth Division, composed largely of former National Guardsmen from this State. About seventeen thousand soldiers were here from Camp Dix and took part in the parade of the Iron Division over the principal streets. The route is eight and one-half miles long and more than two million people were in the grandstands or lined the streets over which the men were to march.

No such elaborate decorations have probably ever been seen before in this city. At historic Independence Hall the display is notable. Here a court of honor has been erected. Grandstands more ornate than were ever built before in Philadelphia almost hide the hall and the surrounding buildings. The statue of George Washington, bought with the pennies of school children which has stood for years in front of the hall, had been removed to make way for the Liberty Bell. This relic was brought from its shrine in the corridor of Independence Hall and was on view for the benefit of the marching soldiers and the multitude.

Peerless Delayed
 It was announced that the transport Peerless, which is bringing home from France the One Hundred and Eighth Field Artillery, made up largely of Pennsylvania soldiers, would not arrive at this port until today. The Peerless was due Wednesday, and the men were to participate in the parade.

Major General Charles H. Muir, commander of the Twenty Eighth Division, his staff and the colonels of regiments making up the division, were given a dinner by the city of Philadelphia Thursday at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Covers were laid for 500 guests, who include Governor Sproul, Mayor Smith, Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Superior, Common Pleas and Municipal Courts and other State and city officials.

Mrs. Sproul, wife of the Governor, and a large number of women, who have been prominent in Red Cross and other work, occupied gallery boxes during the dinner.

Medal for Muir
 Governor Sproul, on behalf of the people of the State, presented General Muir with a gold medal and in an address he eulogized the men of the Keystone Division for the "magnificent service rendered during the war." The inscription on the medal was: "Presented by a grateful Commonwealth to Major General Muir, for gallant service, May 15, 1919."

The Governor announced the appointment of Brigadier General William C. Price, Jr., of Chester, as head of the new National Guard to be organized in Pennsylvania. General Price commanded the Fifty Third Field Artillery Brigade of the Twenty Eighth Division.

Correct Volatility

Atlantic Gasoline is lively. You don't have to coax an Atlantic-fed motor to take the spark. No, not even when the car's been standing.

Just fill your tank with Atlantic Gasoline. Hold out your clutch, throw on your ignition and press the starter-button.

A few revolutions of the crank-shaft and—F-r-r-r! There you are—all set for a spin; carbureter breathing freely; motor purring softly.

Step on her! . . . Eyes front. Keep your foot near the brake. Man, that's Atlantic whizzing you along the asphalt like there wasn't any road there a-tall.

And this goes for trucks, too. Powerful, volatile Atlantic Gasoline will cut your hauling-costs to the bone. That's why most trucks use Atlantic and nothing else.

You try it.
